VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

With the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

UTRECHT, July 18.

WHAT lately happened to Commodore Keppel at Carthagena, makes great Noiſe in this Country, and is variouſly repreſented. Letters from London relate the Affair thus: That Want of Water and Careening having obliged that Officer to put into Carthagena, the Governor ſent him Word to ſheer off; and that Mr. Keppel being ſurprized at ſuch a Reception in Time of Peace, demanded the Reaſon of it, but was anſwered by a Volley of Cannon Shot. Other Letters from London, dated the 14th, give a more probable and natural Account of the Matter: They ſay, that the Governor of Carthagena refuſed to admit Commodore Keppel, unleſs he would ſubmit to perform Quarantine, as his Squadron was returned from the Ports of Africa, and there was ſome Reaſon to ſuſpect it might have brought away ſome contagious Diſtemper: And that Mr. Keppel flatly refuſed to ſubmit to the Quarantine, not only becauſe he judged his Squadron to be healthy, but alſo becauſe he thought it was an Order or Regulation which Men of War were not bound to obſerve. Some Letters from Spain relate the Affair much to the ſame Purpoſe; but none of theſe Advices are clear in this material Circumſtance, viz. Whether the Spaniſh Governor fired at the Engliſh Commodore before or after his refuſing to perform Quarantine.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated May 26.

"From ſeveral electrical Experiments performed by our moſt conſummate Naturaliſts, in Purſuance of thoſe by Mr. Franklin, in Philadelphia, to find whether the tonitruous and electrical Matter be not analogous; it appears, that to fix on the higheſt Part of Buildings, or Ships, ſharp-pointed Iron-bars of 10 or 12 Feet, and gilt to prevent Ruſt, with a Wire hanging down on the Outſide to the Ground, or about one of the Ship's Shrouds is a Preſervative againſt Thunder. The Sieur Dalibard having placed in a Garden at Marly, an Iron-bar on an electrical Body, at the Height of 40 Feet, was informed, that on the 10th of May, about 20 Minutes after Two, a Tempeſt paſſing over that Spot, the Pariſh Prieſt and other Perſons drew from the Bar ſuch Sparks and Agitations as are ſeen in the common electrical Performances. On the 18th the Sieur de Lor having fixed a Bar at the Height of 99 Feet, on a Cake of Roſin 2 Feet ſquare, and 3 Inches thick, drew Coruſcations from it during Half an Hour betwixt 4 and 5, whilſt the Cloud was over it: Theſe Scintillations were perfectly like thoſe emitted by his Gun-barrel, when the Globe is rubbed only with the Bruſh, the ſame Fire, the ſame Crackling; whilſt the Rain mixed with a little Hail, fell from the Cloud without any Lightning or Thunder, tho' it appeared to be the Progreſs of a Tempeſt which had happened elſewhere: Both theſe Experiments have been reported to the Royal Academy of Sciences, and both evince that Thunder Clouds may be deprived of their Fire, by Iron Bars faſhioned and fixed as above."

Extract of a Letter from Dublin, of May 19.

"Some of your London News-Papers are fill'd with curſed Falſhoods, ſaid to be tranſmitted from Dublin; for there is not the leaſt Truth in that ſcandalous Story, concerning a great Perſon's having his Ears cut off for an Attempt to commit S——y; that horrid Vice (God be praiſed) not being known in this Iſland."

WILLIAMSBURG, October 27.

William Trent, Eſq; ſent by this Government with a Preſent to the Twigtwees, arrived in Town this Week, and gives us the following Account of the Engagement mentioned in our laſt. On the 21ſt of June, about Nine o'Clock in the Morning 240 of the French and French Indians, ſurpriz'd the Twigtwees in their Corn Fields, and came ſo ſuddenly on them, that the white Men, who were in their Houſes, had the utmoſt Difficulty to reach the Fort. Three not being able to get in, ſhut themſelves up in one of the Houſes adjoining. There were about 20 Men and Boys, including the white Men in the Fort. The Indians having taken Poſſeſſion of the white Mens Houſes advanced towards the Fort, firing very briſkly, which was as warmly returned, then attacked the Log Houſe where the three Men were ſhut up, who having Plenty of Arms and Ammunition, and being well ſecured by the Strength of the Houſe, might have defended themſelves againſt the whole Body of the Enemy: Notwithſtanding which they could not be prevailed on by the Men in the Fort to fire a Gun, but cowardly hid themſelves under Skins, ſuffered the Houſe to be taken, and themſelves made Priſoners; and then diſcovered to the Enemy the Weakneſs of the Fort. The French and Indians in the Afternoon informed the Twigtwees, that if they would deliver up the white Men that were in the Fort, they would break up the Siege, and go home. After a Conſultation, it was agreed by the Indians and Whites, that as there were ſo few Men, and no Water, in the Fort, it was better to deliver up the white Men, with Beaver and Wampum, to the Indians, on Condition they would do them no further Injury, than let the Fort be taken, and all be at their Mercy. The white Men were delivered up accordingly, except Burney and Andrew, whom the Indians hid. One of the white Men delivered up to them, being wounded in the Belly, they ſtabbed and ſcalped him, took out his Heart and eat it; and as they've a conſiderable Reward for killing an Engliſhman, they cut off his Fingers, and carried them with them to Canada, to prove him ſuch. The Indians upon receiving the white Men (whom they have carried away Priſoners) delivered up all the Indian Women whom they had taken, and ſet off with the Plunder, amounting to about Three Thouſand Pounds. They kill'd one Engliſhman and took ſix Priſoners. One Mingoe, one Shawneſſe, and three Twigtwees, they killed; amongſt whom was the old Pianguiſha King, called by the Engliſh Old Briton, whom they boiled and eat. The French and Indians loſt fifteen in the Battle. They carried off all their Dead except four of the Chopawas, whoſe Cuſtom is to leave the Dead: One of them is the Head King, and another of them the next Head Man of that Nation.——The other Indians that aſſiſted the French were call'd Ottowawas.——One Hundred of the Chapawas went over to the Six-Nations, becauſe they would not help the French, and the reſt that aſſiſted them, ſay, that thoſe which were ſlain were kill'd by the French, and not by the Engliſh and their Indians.

The Six Nations have not yet declared War, (as we mentioned in our laſt) but have called in all their Warriors, and are making ſuch Preparation, that we have Reaſon to expect a Declaration very ſoon.

Monday laſt being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Coronation, the following melancholy Accident happened in this City: At Noon when the Guns were fired, one of the Perſons employed, loading one of them again too haſtily, after it had been diſcharged, the Cartridge took Fire, and went off, by which his right Arm was ſhivered to Pieces, and obliged to be cut off, but we now hear he is in a hopeful Way of Recovering.
